Abstract of Proposed Collection

The Department of State utilizes the Electronic Diversity Visa (“EDV”) Entry Form to elicit information necessary to establish the eligibility of the applicant for the diversity immigrant visa program. The two primary requirements of the program are: (1) the applicant is a native of a low admission country and (2) has at least a high education or its equivalent, or has two years of experience in a job that requires two years of training or experience. Individuals complete the electronic entry forms and then applications are randomly selected for further participation in the program. The Department of State's regulations pertaining to diversity immigrant visas are published in 22 CFR 42.33.

Methodology

The EDV Entry Form is available online at <https://dvprogram.state.gov> and can only be submitted electronically during the annual registration period.

Kevin E Bryant,

Deputy Director,

Office of Directives Management,

Department of State.
